Dear Rex: It could also be the flu — there's a lot of it around. See a doctor if the symptoms persist.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband teaches music in a small junior college although his major field is English Literature. He is not really an authority on music, but people think he is.

Some good friends asked my husband to give an evaluation of their niece's voice. She's 12 and a lovely, bright young girl, but she has trouble carrying a tune. My husband didn't know what to say, so he finally told them as gently as possible, not to spend money on lessons as he didn't think she had any

Now the people are cold to us and we are no longer friends. What should he do if he is asked in the future for his opinion in a similar situation?—FROZE OUT

Dear Out: These people did not want an evaluation — they wanted approval. Unfortunately, most friends are like this. In the future suggest your husband say he could not be objective about people he knows, and suggest an evaluation by a stranger.

Panhellenic Tea Slated May 1 at Neptunian Club

Over three hundred mothers and daughters from the South Bay will attend the annual South Bay Panhellenic tea to be held Sunday, May 1, in the Neptunian Club in Manhattan Beach.

This annual event is planned for senior girls who plan to attend a four year college in September. They are invited from the following schools: Narbonne, Chadwick, North, South, Marymount Palos Verdes, Mira Costa, Aviation, Redondo and El Segundo.

The program under the direction of the general chairman, Mrs. John McGovern of Hollywood Riviera, includes a fashion show with models from San Jose, UCLA, USC, and Santa Barbara on life as a sorority girl, and an explanation of the problems of rushing and how South Bay Panhellenic can be of help to each girl.

Guests will be greeted by Mrs. Keith Crown, president, and file chairmen, Mrs. Herman Friend and Mrs. Shelby Calhoun. Tea will be served from a table covered with the beautiful Panhellenic pink cloth with the Greek letters of each sorority embossed in pearls. The centerpiece will feature the doves of peace in pink roses.

Twenty-two national sororities will be represented by three members from each sorority. It is at this tea that Torrance as well as the other high school seniors may meet these delegates and simplify the problems of recommendations if they decide to rush in the fall. All girls who have received invitations are urged to attend.

Torrance members on committees include Mmes. La Mar Stewart, John McGovern, Richard Kincaid, Wilbur Schindler, Mark McKie, and James Smilie.
